

Organization

Argumentative and Informative/Explanatory

Organization is characterized by an overall plan (coherence) and internal weaving together of ideas (cohesion). Organization is enhanced when a student pauses to develop ideas and is strengthened by the use of varied sentence structures and transitional techniques.

- 5 The response has a strong vertical and horizontal structure.
- The organization is specific to task, purpose and audience.
 - The response moves smoothly from purposeful introduction to effective conclusion.
 - Effective transitions contribute to unity.
 - Transitions may be transparent and do not interfere with the flow of ideas.
 - There is a strong progression of ideas from sentence to sentence and introduction to conclusion.
- 4 The response has a reasonably strong vertical and horizontal structure.
- The response is generally appropriate to task, purpose and audience.
 - The response moves somewhat smoothly from beginning to conclusion.
 - Some effective transitions are evident that contribute to unity.
 - Transitions may be obvious but they do not interfere with the flow of ideas.
 - There is a progression of ideas from sentence to sentence and introduction to conclusion.
- 3 The response has a basic vertical and horizontal structure.
- The response is somewhat appropriate to task, purpose and audience.
 - The response moves from introduction to conclusion but may have some interruptions.
 - Some transitions are evident, but they may be artificial and interfere somewhat with the flow of ideas.
 - There is a progression of ideas from introduction to conclusion, but sentence-to-sentence cohesion may be lacking.
- 2 The response is flawed structurally and disorganized.
- The response lacks specificity as to task, purpose and/or audience.
 - The response may have insufficient writing to organize.
 - Transitions may be missing or inappropriate.
 - The progression of ideas from beginning to end is disrupted by repetition, gaps, or random ideas.
- 1 The response is seriously disorganized.
- The response may have insufficient writing to organize.
 - Transitions may be confusing.
 - The progression of ideas from introduction to conclusion is seriously disrupted by repetition, gaps, or random ideas.
